Total,	<hr/> $63,125 48

We entered upon the duties of our office July 1, 1887. Our thanks are due to the retiring board for courtesies shown us. Our superintendent and matron, Charles C. Tucker and wife, appointed by the former board, have fulfilled the duties of their office in a satisfactory manner, and have been unceasing in their efforts for the comfort of all who come under their charge.

During the last session of the legislature two thousand dollars ($2000) were appropriated to be expended for improvements in sewerage. We were visited by Dr. Irving A. Watson, of the State Board of Health, and in conformity to his orders the work was begun, the plan and specifications were submitted to him and accepted; to be made of the best material, with all modern improvements. The work is not fully completed in the Insane Asylum; but in the almshouse and jail, where the system has been in practical operation the past winter, it meets our expectations.

The bakery in the basement of the new asylum is finished and occupied as such.

The steam pipes connected with the institution, upon examination, were found to be in a bad condition and have been thoroughly repaired.

The yard connected with the old asylum has been enclosed by a substantial fence, and a summer house constructed therein for the comfort of the inmates.

The income of the farm has been somewhat decreased by the partial failure of the potato crop.

The school has been kept as in previous years.

The financial reports, etc., will be found under their appropriate headings.

We gratefully acknowledge contribution of books and newspapers for the inmates, from Charles T. Brown of Hampton Falls, City Marshal Rowe of Portsmouth, and others.

GEO. W. SANBORN,
JOHN F. MAGRAW,
WALTER J. DUDLEY.

PHYSICIANS' REPORT.

TO THE COMMISSIONERS OF ROCKINGHAM COUNTY :

Gentlemen : In accordance with the usual custom we submit the eighteenth annual report of the medical department and sanitary condition of the County Almshouse, House of Correction and Insane Asylum, for the past year.

There has been but little sickness, and that from diseases ordinarily met with among the same class of patients at their usual places of abode.

Many and marked improvements have been made in the sanitary condition of the buildings and their surroundings, an abundant supply of water, with the many modern appliances for better ventilation and the necessities of the inmates.

The drainage has been improved by the laying of many rods of soil pipe, and the placing of traps and other contrivances for the prevention of the escape of sewer gas and other noxious germs of disease.

There are now in the Institution seventy-eight insane patients. Males and females are confined in the buildings erected for them. They have the constant care and attendance of competent nurses, and, in a few instances, their condition both physical and mental has been improved ; still the larger part are hopelessly insane, and will ever require the kind care and sympathy of the County.

There have been fifteen deaths in the Institution during the past year, and no births :

Oliver Dennett, died May 6, 1887, of general debility, aged 67; admitted May 5, 1887, from Portsmouth.

Rockwell Varney, insane, died July 3, 1887, (suicide,) aged 63; admitted June 25, 1887, from Portsmouth.

Daniel F. Gilman, died August 7, 1887, of septicaemia, aged 50; admitted August 6, 1887, from Fremont.

Maurice Flynn, died September 28, 1887, of general debility, aged 69; admitted May 1, 1882, from Exeter.

Almira Robie, insane, died November 2, 1887, of old age, aged 76; admitted June 16, 1886, from Raymond.

Abel Webber, died November 5, 1887, of consumption, aged 55; admitted September 28, 1887, from Hampstead.

George Wall, died November 10, 1887, of epilepsy, aged 35; admitted November 9, 1887, from Exeter.

Nathaniel N. Martin, died January 11, 1888, of paralysis, aged 70; admitted December 26, 1887, from Candia.

James Ryan, insane, died March 9, 1888, of general debility, aged 76; admitted February 14, 1871, from Concord Asylum.

Sarah A. Healey, died March 15, 1888, of dropsy from heart disease, aged 89; admitted October 27, 1869, from Epping.

Rachael Flanders, died March 26, 1888, of septicaemia, aged 71; admitted August 11, 1887, from South Hampton.

Jenny Gardner, died March 30, 1888, of general paralysis, aged 25; admitted June 1, 1886, from Portsmouth.

Samuel B. Philbrick, insane, died April 12, 1888, of general debility, aged 66; admitted May 23, 1885, from Rye.

William Marden, died April 29, 1888, of dropsy from disease of kidneys, aged 67; admitted August 4, 1886, from Portsmouth.

Of those who died, one was over eighty years of age ; five between seventy and eighty ; five between sixty and seventy ; three died within two days of admission ; two within one month ; one within two months.

Before closing, we would acknowledge the uniform kindness and assistance of the Superintendent and his amiable wife, who have been constant in their attention and efforts to ameliorate the sufferings of those committed to their care. At the close of this year, the senior Physician, who has been in continuous service for nearly seventeen years, retires, and A. W. Mitchell, M. D., succeeds him.

Respectfully submitted,

Pike, (a period of eight months,) I was appointed in May last by the old board of Commissioners to the Chaplaincy of the County Farm Institution, and continued by your courtesy and kindness in the office after you came into power.

In conformity with the trust you reposed in me, I have endeavored to the best of my ability, faithfully and judiciously, to discharge all the duties pertaining to the office.

Public services have been held according to arrangement, on the second and fourth Sabbaths in each month during the year, with the exception of a brief interruption when it seemed absolutely necessary to use the Chapel as a sleeping apartment for the accommodation of outside help engaged in making extensive repairs on the premises.

Public funeral services also have been held in the cases of all inmates who have died and been buried during the year in the County Farm Cemetery.

The attendance upon the Chapel services is always good, and frequently quite large. This is the more notable from the fact that there is no constraint, but all are at liberty to come of their own free will and accord. Much of the time we are favored with the presence and encouragement of visitors and friends, and the services on the whole are apparently interesting and profitable. At least, the inmates at times express themselves as both pleased and helped.

It is our humble trust, therefore, that we do not labor wholly in vain among these wards of Rockingham County.

We acknowledge our indebtedness to Miss Mattie Pike and Miss Gracie Tucker, and others, for help rendered on Sabbaths in the way of vocal and instrumental music, which has added greatly to the interest of Chapel services.

My labors have not been confined wholly to public services, but I have mingled quite freely among the inmates, visiting at the Jail and at Asylum, also in the Hospitals and rooms of the sick, and wherever I might reach them to speak a cheering word or lend a helping hand. Doubtless with God's help some good has been accomplished during the year; so that the Chaplain's office is of some value to the Institution.

I cannot speak too appreciatively of the marked attention and respect extended to me by all the officers and help connected with the County Farm.

My thanks are especially due to the Superintendent and Matron, (Mr. and Mrs. Tucker,) who have shown me great kindnesses, and furnished me most cheerfully every facility whereby I might reach and be helpful to the people committed to their care.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. JONES, Chaplain.
